About

I focus on AI in SaaS, Salesforce, and data integration, and I've discovered I enjoy being the bridge between business and tech — turning messy data and buzzwords into solutions people can actually use. From building AI-powered support tools (RAG/LLM prototypes) to fixing customer data pipelines in...

Just wrapped up LLM Engineering: Master AI, Large Language Models & Agents

This wasn't a "no-code AI" hype course, it was about actually getting hands-on with building:

- Creating RAG pipelines and fine-tuning models (QLoRA) through code
- Understanding what it takes to run LLM applications in production (and fix issues when things break) ...more
